

The Wizard Within Oracle Deck

Instruction Manual

Written By Mitch Garlington
Artwork By Melanie Ciavattone

Meet The Author

Mitch Garlington

Born in Frome Somerset, Mitch has been aware of spirit and the world of magick from a young age. He is a professional Spiritual Medium, Psychic, Tarot Reader, Male Witch, Healer, established Author and Mentor in his own rights.

Growing up was always an interesting time for me as I was forever being taken into different worlds that co-exist within that of our own. I wanted to create a deck that touched on these different elements of myth and magick. From as far back as I can remember I was often being visited by things that were otherworldly or experiences would happen that the average person was unaware of. The Wizard Within Oracle deck has been a labour of love but I am so pleased with the end result.

I do feel like a massive part of who I am is captured within the deck. The work that spirit constantly allow me to do really does touch my heart and I feel so lucky and blessed to be able to call this my life's work.

My hope is that my oracle deck will offer an extension of healing and psychic information to help people that are maybe at a crossroads in their life. I also hope that it can encourage and bring out the natural magick and intuition that resides within each of us.

For further information about Mitch
Visit:

Instagram – @MitchTarotMedium

Facebook – The Official Mitch Garlington

Email – TarotWitchMitch87@hotmail.com

www.Mitch-Garlington.co.uk

Meet The Artist

Melanie Ciavattone

My story starts in rural Wiltshire, home of stone circles, mystical crop circles and white horses on hills. I grew up with a love of art, inspired by my mother, a talented artist. I've drawn and painted the world around me since childhood. My journey has taken me to the coast, Brighton and Bournemouth, working as an occupational therapist. I've always been inspired to keep creating, whether it was in Brighton's Lanes, Boscomb's pier. No matter where I was, I was comforted by the connection to spirit who would always give me hope, reassuring me that my art life would be my saving grace.

Life favours the brave, as they say, and just as I thought I was living my best life it got better. I met my American husband and crossed the Atlantic. Living in South Carolina, with my husband, I am surrounded by incredible wildlife – pelicans, dolphins and turtles – very different from my Wiltshire roots. I have a passion for art, wildlife, magic, spirituality, helping and bringing joy to others. It was truly written in the stars that I would work with the beautiful soul Mitch. He had faith in my art and how we would work together on this inspired project. Working with Mitch's words for each card, I was guided to create each scene. I even kept a note pad by the bed as first morning downloads are my absolute favourite. I now know that my connection to spirit is through my inspiration to create

For further information on MeltangleArt

Visit:

Instagram – @Meltangle.art

Facebook – Meltangleart

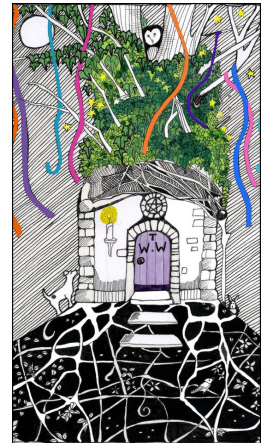

Email – Meltangleart@gmail.com

The Wizard Within Card Spreads

Here are some magical card spreads to have a go at trying out...

The Sun, The Moon & Stars - Three card spread

The Sun – What is being reenergised for you at this time.

The Moon – What is being cleared and cleansed for you at this time.

The Stars – What wishes are about to come true.

The Stone Circle Compass – Five card spread

1.

4.

5.

2.

3.

Card 1 – North – Earth – What grounds you?

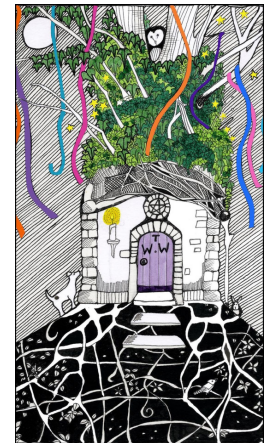

Card 2 – East – Air – What are your inner most thoughts?

Card 3 – South – Fire – What are you passionate about?

Card 4 – West – Water – What touches your heart?

Card 5 – Spirit – What defines you?

*The Wizards Wands Transformation –
Five card spread*

Card 1 – Represents my transformation

Card 2 – What this looks like day to day

Card 3 – What this could look like in the future

Card 4 – What I need to work through

Card 5 – Missing piece of the puzzle that I am not aware of

The Wizards Tree - Six Card Spread

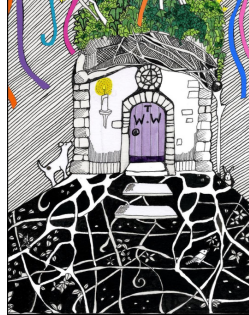

6.

4.

3.

5.

2.

1.

Card 1 – Seed – Potential

Card 2 – Roots – Firm foundations

Card 3 – Stalk – Fast growth

Card 4 – Leaves – Where to expand

Card 5 – Flower where to experience gratitude

Card 6 – Fruit – Culmination of the work

These are just a few types of spread to try. It is also worth pulling a daily card and seeing what the messages are from the wizard within.

You also have the magical wizard incantations which can be used within a spell. Or you can be used as a daily mantra of affirmation to help you through your day.

Card 1 - The Golden Cloak

– Key Words –
Protection
Safety – Shielding
Boundaries

You may be feeling very drained of late? this could be to do with people, circumstances or situations going on around you. If you have been drawn to this card it's time to put on the golden cloak of protection, this will help shield you from the outside energies of the world.

Visualise a beautiful golden cloak being placed around you. Feel the soft fabric and image it has a lovely big hood, pull the hood up. You feel cushioned and safe, imagine this shielding you and sending away any negative energies.

Visualise the cloak getting brighter and starting to form a golden aura around you, it's as bright as the sun. Allow that lovely light to shine out into the universe and keep all lights shining bright, particularly when you feel drained around dark or negative people or situations. The more you can use this technique, the less untoward energies will be able to affect you. Negative influences around you will become more distant. The cloak can be put on at any time and you will always be kept protected and safe.

– Wizard Incantation –

I put on my cloak to protect me from harm. Sending love and light to the world and mother earth who continues to fight for her beauty at this time. My cloak feels like a layer of skin, with golden light, I am safe within.

Card 2 - The Wizards Staff

- Key Words -
Strength
Support
Balance
Anchoring

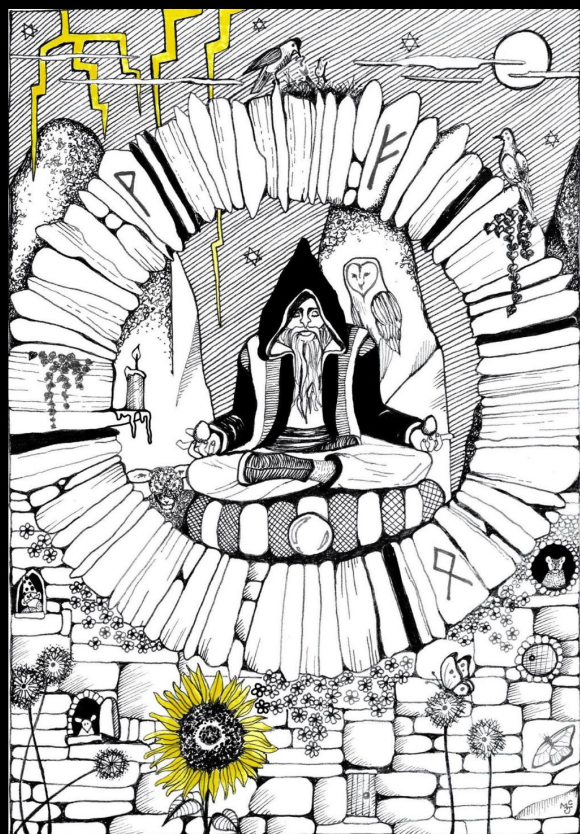

Notice how the wizard walks about the land, holding his staff and allowing it to guide him safely forward. It keeps him supported and balanced and on his feet.

If you have been drawn to this card the wizard's staff is coming in to give you strength and support at this time. Whilst you have been walking about your daily life, you are starting to feel like the ground below you is not as solid as you first thought. It feels like you are walking through mud or quicksand and your feet are starting to sink. Use your own staff within to guide you through this boggy road until you get back onto solid ground. Once you have reach hard land take comfort and know you have the needed strength to move forward with ease, and a renewed sense of energy. Allow that inner strength to grow and continue to keep you on your feet at all times.

– Wizard Incantation –

I use my staff to guide my way, through mud and dirt I don't delay. Though leaves may scatter at my feet, I journey on to life's great treat. Though roads are slippery and unknown I journey on until I end up home.

The Stone Circle

Card 3 - The Stone Circle

- Key Words -
New Beginnings
Power

Personal Aliveness
Stillness - Reflection

The stone circle is calling you... This is a time of reflection, change and new beginnings, the ancient ritual stones have been watching you. They have been standing since the dawn of time watching and listening and will continue to stand when everything else starts to crumble.

If you have been drawn to this card you are waking up to a deeper power and new energy that resides within you. It's an energy that is so new to you, yet also feels so old. It's a wise ancient energy that you are just learning to harness and tap into. Full of creativity, power and personal aliveness. You feel at one with yourself in mind, body and spirit. As old cycles come to an end, it's time to welcome a new ritual and allow the next cycle of your life to blossom and begin. You can welcome this new change and allow new doors to open for you. In the past there have been times when you have been standing in the way of you. But you feel this new wave of energy from the earth's core and hear the distant rumble of thunder in the sky, as you connect to a higher power – vibration. The stones will stand and watch over you now, as they have always done with previous cycles, until this new lesson is complete.

– Wizard Incantation –

As I stand within the circle of stones, I welcome new doors to open whilst old ones close. As old as time, as hard as rock, the stones my weather but their power does not. I feel the earth, I see the moon, the light is brighter as my power continues to bloom.

Card 4 - The Wise Wizard

– Key Words –
Wisdom
Knowledge
Awareness
Teachings

The wise wizard is an old soul that has lived many different lifetimes. They have a fountain of knowledge in both the spiritual, magical and physical worlds. Knowledge is power and they will only ever use this for the greater of good or to enrich someone's life. If you have been drawn to this card you feel like an old soul on young shoulders. You too have experienced many lives before and are retaping into that knowledge and energy. It is time to share the knowledge you have learnt and acquired with those around you.

A Wise wizard knows that the information is not purely for self. It has always been giving with the knowing it will be passed down to others to do good, and this is now what you need to do with those that look up and respect you.

Wise wizards know when to speak up for what they believe in. But they also know and are not afraid to act, when enough is enough, and to turn around and walk away. Allow the teachings within to be passed down to the next generation of wizards within.

– Wizard Incantation –

I live in this physical world, whilst carrying the teachings from the old ways into the new world. I pass on the knowledge for the greater of good, in the hope mankind can find peace with his fellow brothers and sisters, and the universe can start to heal.

Card 5 - The Wizards Cauldron

- Key Words -
Fire - Battleground
Protection
Take Action
Defend

The wizard will only call upon his cauldron in times of trouble and need when he must defend and stand up for what he believes in. If you have been drawn to this card now is such a time. Like a cauldron bubbling over with a roaring fire underneath to keep its potion brewing. You feel like this with life, everything is bubbling and brewing over and it's all getting a bit too hot to handle and fiery.

Now is the time to take action, and stand up for what you believe in. Don't allow the cauldrons potion to bubble over and become ruined.

Continue to perfect and see this through to the end. Yes, you may get slightly burnt along the way, but the end potion is worth the pain.
Wizards know more than anyone else that sometimes we must walk away and walk alone.
This may or may not be the case here, but know whatever happens, you can pull the cauldron out at any time needed, to create a potion to help you in these hours of need.

– Wizard Incantation –

Eye of toad, wing of bat, a drop of this and that.
A potion to calm and sooth the soul, whilst hotheads melt and lose control. No harm I cause, no magick wasted, I walk away all hurts deflected.

Card 6 - The Scrying Ball

– Key Words –
Seek The Truth
Visions – Intuition
Manifest

The wizard has many tools in his toolbox, but none more special and powerful than the scrying ball. If you have been drawn to this card it is time to use your own scrying ball and see the magic, you have within.

You may have found you are getting a lot of strange feelings recently; things may be happening that you can't quite explain?

Things may be playing out as you visualised or foresaw them to be. You have indeed been gifted from a young age, yet you may have been ignoring or neglecting your natural pathway.

Unexplainable dreams, premonitions, or de-Ja-vu, maybe happening on a regular basis?

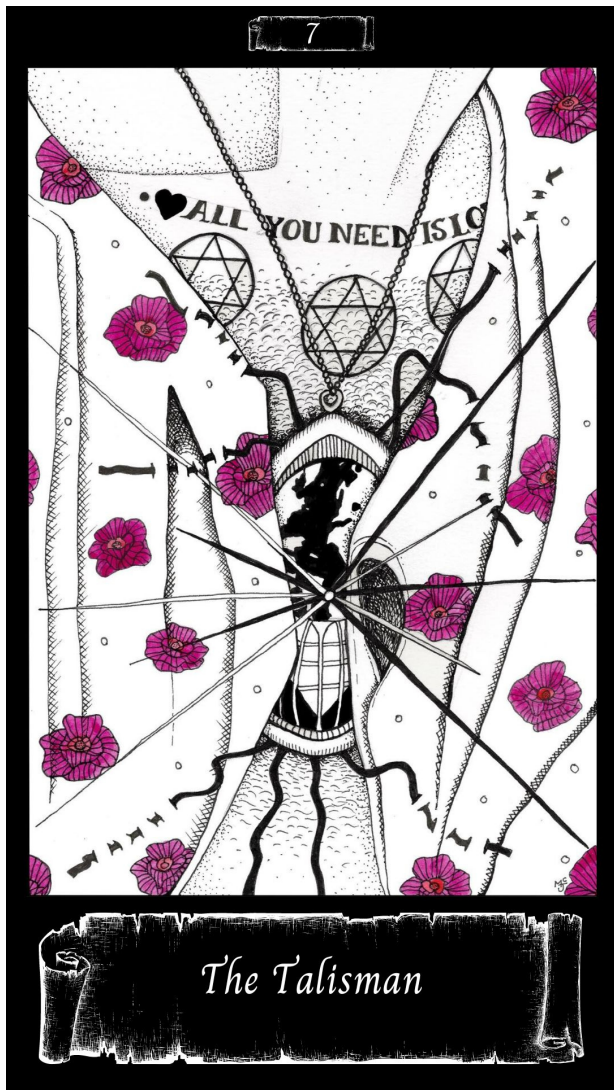

There have been too many unanswered stories of late, it is now time to call upon the true wizard within and allow this natural power to grow.

Ancient wizards work with magic, the spirit world, and call upon mother earth.

You will find you will start to listen to your own intuition more. Allow and welcome this in. It will indeed guide you forward and help you on the next chapter of your journey.

– Wizard Incantation –

I hold this ball within my hand. I look and study across the lands. Images racing all around. I see a story but hear no sound. Winds may blow, and spirit's whistle. Silent messages given need no approval. I am blessed to be shown what spirits give me. I understand this gift is within me.

Card 7 - The Talisman

- Key Words -
Unconditional Love
Blessed
Emotional Abundance

The wizard was given a talisman from a young age from his ancestors, it's something you may not see at first glance. It is usually worn under robes and clothing, but the wizard treasures it and keeps it safe and worn near the heart.

If you have been drawn to this card, you are treasuring the world you live in at such times. Family, friends, partners, children & animals, the unconditional love that is shown to you both in this physical world and the love from the spirit realm.

like the wizard, you may have your own talisman hidden from many to see. Yet it forms a bond, invisible golden threads that wrap around your heart, keeping all, you love and hold dear to you.

The talisman is a very rare gift and one we all deserve. Allow your own talisman to sparkle and shine bright and take the love you feel from it and keep it safe with you always. We all deserve to experience unconditional love and a wizard is no different.

– Wizard Incantation –

I feel my talisman beneath my wears, its warmth surrounds me, it has no cares. Emotions passed yet bonds so strong, the love I'm giving will always live on. For this I treasure every day, love is for a lifetime not just a day.

Card 8 - The Enchanted Forest

- Key Words -
Healing - Nature
Grounding
Solitude

The Enchanted Forest

Whilst wizards walk in everyday life, they need time to regenerate and revitalise. If you have been drawn to this card there is a need to recharge and heal. Go to the enchanted forest, a sacred space for you, a place that offers tranquillity, where you can escape from the demands of the physical world. Notice the smells and the sounds, the magic and beauty the forest holds within it. You may have been feeling so rushed off your feet with the hustle and bustle of life, that you are feeling very dizzy or quite ungrounded. Take time out in the enchanted forest, allow your roots to go deep down into mother earth. Feel connected, grounded, anchored and safe. This is a place just for you, your own enchanted forest that you can come to as little or as often as you feel is necessary.

When you need that time to reconnect and briefly turn the world off.

– Wizard Incantation –

I feel the earth beneath my feet. Its roots pull me down and hold me deep. I feel connected, I feel at peace, the world falls silent, I find relief. No harm is caused, no voices raised, whilst nature speaks and sings life's praise.

Card 9 - The Dark Wizard

– Key Words –

Evil

Danger – Warning

Deception

Listen – Pay attention

A wizard knows that there is both light and dark in the world. Both are needed to keep balance and order. We all have a moral compass and that creates good and bad, right and wrong. If you have been drawn to this card, you need to be aware of the light and dark – good and bad around you at this time. Most wizards work with light and truth, but you may have been getting a heavy or uneasy feeling around a person or people in recent times – pay attention. Wizards' robes may swish when pulled around dark wizards walk they leave no sound. Be careful with whom you talk to, and how their energy leaves you feeling. If you are getting a gut feeling that someone may not be as genuine as you first thought, it is important to trust the warning signs. This will save you a lot of heartache and hurt further down the line. Remember like a venomous snake, dark wizards will portray themselves in a positive light. Be aware of the signs so you don't become infected by their poison. As dark wizards can go unnoticed as they walk amongst us in our everyday life. Keep your light bright and trust the signs you are getting. Remember energy never lies

– Wizard Incantation –

Whilst hoods are pulled up high to shadow one's face, the power within does not misplace. Gut feelings pull you in certain ways, it's a time to listen and obey. No hurt is needed, no action taken, you know the truth – the truth has spoken.

Card 10 - The Quartz Crystal Point

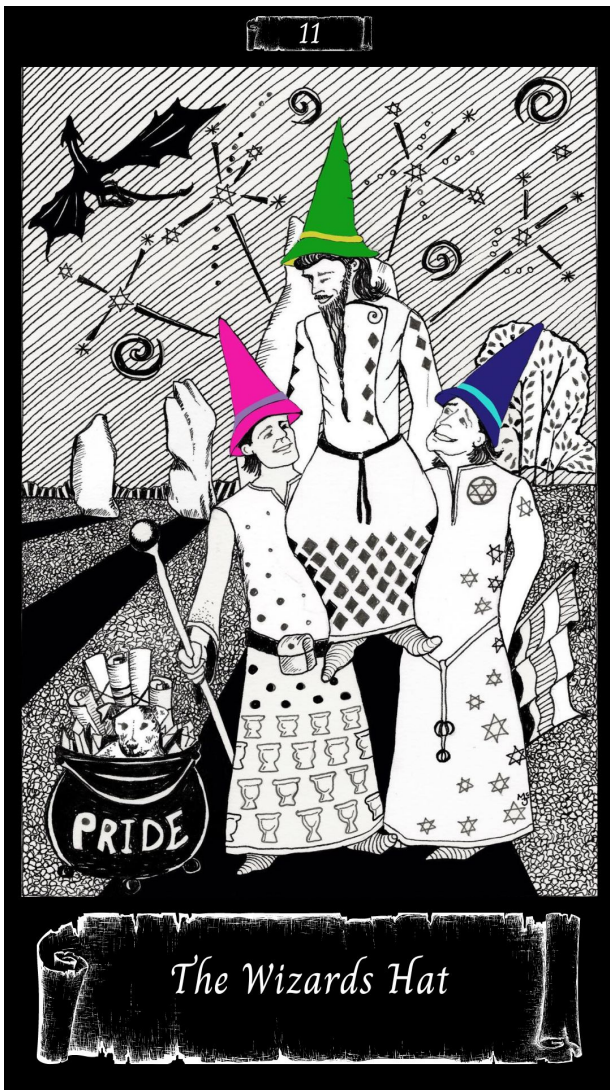

- Key Words -
Healing
Magick
Meditation
Finding Inner Peace

The clear quartz crystal point is very important to any working wizard. If you have been drawn to this card now is an important time, to use your crystal point to recharge and heal yourself. You may have been feeling slightly off balance lately, or over doing the magick. You may have felt your emotions are very extreme high one minute and low the next. Take some time out for you, sit and meditate with your quartz crystal point. Use it with the beauty of the sun light and watch and see how the light shines through the crystal shards. It forms a beautiful healing rainbow. The colours reenergise all your chakra points. and you feel at peace, balanced and healed. Anytime you feel drained you can go somewhere and use your crystal point to recharge. A wizard's work is never done. So, make sure you make this a priority in your daily life, so that you don't become burnt out. Wizards heal so many others but forget to stop and heal themselves.

– Wizard Incantation –

I hold my crystal point; I feel golden sunshine bright and allow my inner rainbow to be exposed. The rainbow from within the crystal, balances, cleanses, and heals my inner body, my physical body and my aura. I am blessed and at peace with all things at this time.

Card 11 - The Wizards Hat

- Key Words -
Happy - Positive
Pride
Celebration
Unique - Powerful

The wizards hat completes a wizard's outfit. But it's not just a hat, it's so much more, a medal a sign that shows you have survived and made it on your magical journey. If you have been drawn to this card everything is coming to you, just at the right time. The wizard's hat is symbolic, it's a success after harder times. This is very much a victory for you in life. You have been through some dark adventures but against all odds, you have come out on top a survivor. It's time to wear your hat proudly and see how good it looks on you. Be proud to hold your head up high and wear the pointed peak with pride. Other wizards indeed look up to you and hear about the tales you have been through. But most importantly you can smile when you relive your tales to others. What a journey you have been on, but you are still here to tell your own story. Wow just stop for a second and celebrate how great that feels. Know that you are one of the most powerful wizards at this moment in time and embrace that feeling and smile.

– Wizard Incantation –

I put on my hat and wear it with pride, while others scuff and laugh, I beam from inside. Through Fiery dragons and darkest realms, my hat is still on me, safe and sound. A smile, a grin from ear to ear, you cannot judge me, I'm strong and I have no fear.

Card 12 - The Wizard's Wand

- Key Words -
Intuition - Trust
Power
Change

Perhaps the most powerful of tools is that of the wizard's wand. When wizards are first given a wand, they don't come with any instructions. They have to trust that they will learn and know how to use the magick within correctly. If you have been drawn to this card, this is a time of higher connection. It's a time to trust in all areas of your life. If you are struggling with something you must trust the power within, and like waving a wand, do what is needed to correct the situation. Trust is something that comes hard to us all but know it is within reach. You have always been able to use your own wand, yet you have found in the past, outside influences have blocked and made it hard to work with. Hold the wand firmly and allow the incantation you speak to follow. Trust and let it come naturally. You will find this is much easier than you first thought. Anything that needs correction now is the time to focus on doing just that.

– Wizard Incantation –

A wand I hold within my hand, no words are written they come to hand. I trust my power deep within. The wands a tool to guide love in. With words comes power, with power comes truth, a leap of faith allows in good.

The Wizard's Owl

Card 13 - The Wizard's Owl

- Key Words -
 Watcher
 Messenger
 Truth seeker Waiting

Wizards have a love for all forms of life but none more sacred, than gatekeepers of magick the trusted owl. Owl flies high above the land and becomes the wizard's eyes and ears in the sky. Bringing back information and passing on messages and news for the wizard at high speeds. If you have been drawn to this card, you are indeed waiting for much awaited news. There is a need to know quickly so send your own owl forward, to allow the information to come back to you as quickly as possible.

whatever the news is weather good or bad, know you will have received the information in a timely manner. The owl will give you the strength and support needed to tackle situations at this time. Owls roam above in the skies, and you may go days, months or years without seeing them. Or calling upon them, but know they are always there watching from above.
Waiting to be called in as and when there magick is needed.

– Wizard Incantation –

I call upon my feathered friend, news awaits my life depends. High in the sky I call your name, my guardian gate keeper sores in to guide my way. Above he watches, above he listens, silent messages past on in sequence. Awaited news he passes on, he flies away his work is done.

Card 14 - The Spell Book

- Key Words -
Transformation Manifestation Growth
Inner Power

The wizard has a range of tools he works with, but none older than his trusted spell book. Incantations that have been recorded and passed down from ancestors before. The book holds all sorts of secrets, power and magick. If you have been drawn to this card it's a powerful time of transformation. There has been a lot of talking with you of late about, hopes, dreams, goals and desires. You have big plans and ideas of what you would like your future to be, but are not sure how to make these things happen or turn them into reality. You can see the goal but are unsure of the steps to take to get there. Use the spell book within and manifest any changes needed to turn hopes and dreams into reality. Write down and speak out loud what you need to happen to make this possible. The only person standing in your way of this is you. The spell book will offer the incantations needed to allow this magical change from within to occur.

– Wizard Incantation –

My spell book open but the pages are empty, the words that are needed are not a plenty. I look within and ask myself what holds me back? what stops my heart? I know the answers, I know the words, the spell I cast to set free my curse. I have the power deep within the magick awaits it's time to begin.

The Crystal Cave

Card 15 - The Crystal Cave

- Key Words -
Grounding
Safety

Hidden - Solitude
Comfortable

The crystal cave is known to very few people apart from the wizard. It's a place that offers comfort and safety. Nobody but the wizard knows where this place is, and he feels free here, and almost like time stops and comes to a standstill.

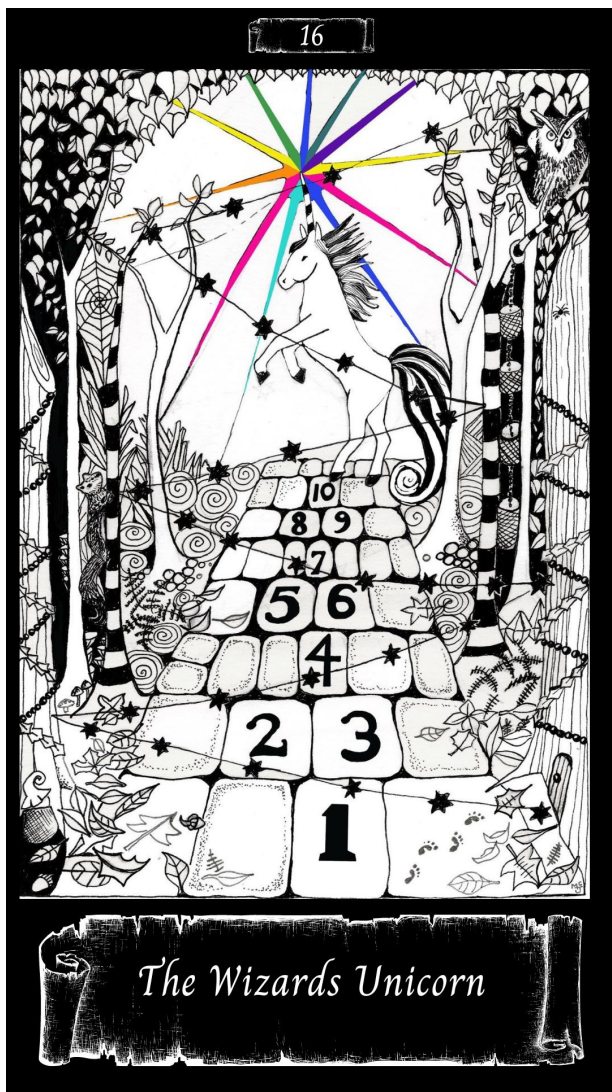

If you have been drawn to this card like the wizard, you have been spending a great deal of time in your own version of the crystal cave. This maybe indeed your home or another place that is sacred and special to you.

you to feel free here and accepted without any conditions. You feel safe and secure, and can be yourself, which is much needed at this time. Candles lit around the cave, the light flickers and shines almost like a temple of beauty that is for your eyes only.

Use this time to enjoy your own company and reflect on how far you have come on your own pathway or journey. The entrance to the cave has a big stone that you can wave your hand over, to move as gentle as a feather. A secret place you can come and go to as little or as often as is required.

– Wizard Incantation –

A wave of my hand, the stone door opens, a secret place, my inner space. Whilst it may seem small and damp to some. It is my palace, a place unknown, where magick happens and fairies twinkle. I'm safe inside my own earthly crystal.

Card 16 - The Wizard's Unicorn

- Key Words -

Purity

Creativity

Strength

Unconditional Love

Deep within the enchanted forest there is a secret creature known only to a few magical folk. Only the most creative of people who naturally believe will see, the wizard's unicorn. A beautiful, mystical, magical creature. The unicorn's horn, gold and silver hold's such a rare power and creative energy.

If you have been drawn to this card now is a time to let creativity flow. But like the unicorns horn which is rare, ideas that flow come from yourself make sure you embrace and take full credit for your own artistic flare. The unicorn gracefully, walks through the forest and lights up a darkened road. This is what you must now do with your own creative energy. Don't allow others around you to hold you back, like the unicorn not everyone can see this beautiful creature straight away.

– Wizard Incantation –

I walk along a leaf swept road. I stop, I listen, I hear no sound. Then there before me a silhouette I see, golden, silver blinds me. I freeze then and there, solid no words I can speak. I feel the magick, deep beneath my feet. I study in the distance, the shimmer and glare of the unicorn's spirit standing there.

Card 17 - The Potion Bottle

- Key Words -
Self-Confidence
Devaluing
Believe
Illusion

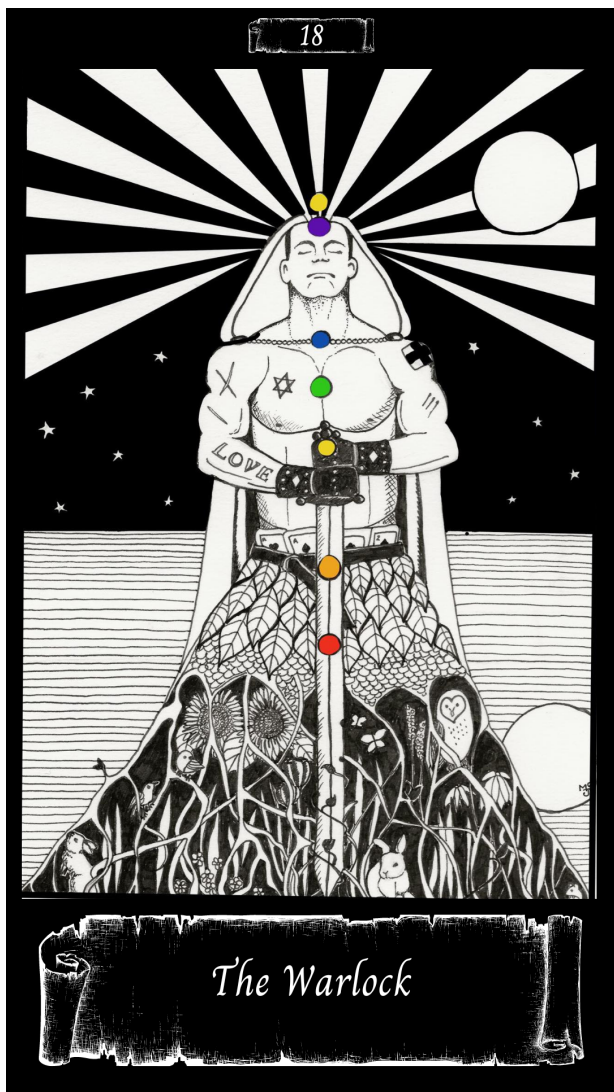

Like with all great wizards at times they lose their way and lose sight of what they truly hold inside. If you have been drawn to this card, you have recently lost your bottle, lost your confidence, and are playing yourself down or devaluing yourself.

It is time to take out and drink the contents within the wizard's potion bottle. A mystical formula created many moons ago in the event it was needed for such times. As you drink the potion feel its power surge down through you.

from the top of your head to the base of your feet. Visualise a stunning purple light working its way down through your body. This powerful energy recharges you, and you feel alive, confident, ready to take on the world once more. The potion is complete, you once again have the power in all areas of your life as you did once before. It's time to stand tall and proud and believe in the magick you hold within you.

– Wizard Incantation –

This potion I drink to reconnect my power. I lost my way, feeling darker by the hour. I feel the magick go through my soul. Its power is strong it takes over full control. It realigns my body, connects me deep with the earth, the power is speaking time to see my true worth.

Card 18 - The Warlock

- Key Words -
Misunderstood
Empowered
Identity - Remember
Who you are

The warlock is a wizard of great power. He feels comfortable in his own skin and feels connected, above with the spiritual world and grounded below with mother earth. If you have been drawn to this card, like the warlock you know what your about. You know your truth and identity. It may have taken you a while to get to this stage in your life journey, but the important thing is you are here now. You know how you work and how you want to conduct yourself within the world around you.

in the past you may have had to really defend yourself, your beliefs, and your own magical ways of the world.

However, now you are standing your ground and flying solo but flying free. The warlock represents a time for celebration you have accepted yourself on all levels and can now embrace the full magick this world has to offer you.

– Wizard Incantation –

Voices from the past echo around. The judging that once took place stops without making a sound and is nowhere to be found. The warlock I am today stands tall and proud. I know my place I have found my way.

Card 19 - The Drinking Horn

- Key Words -
Vitality
Hydration
Cleansing

The Drinking Horn

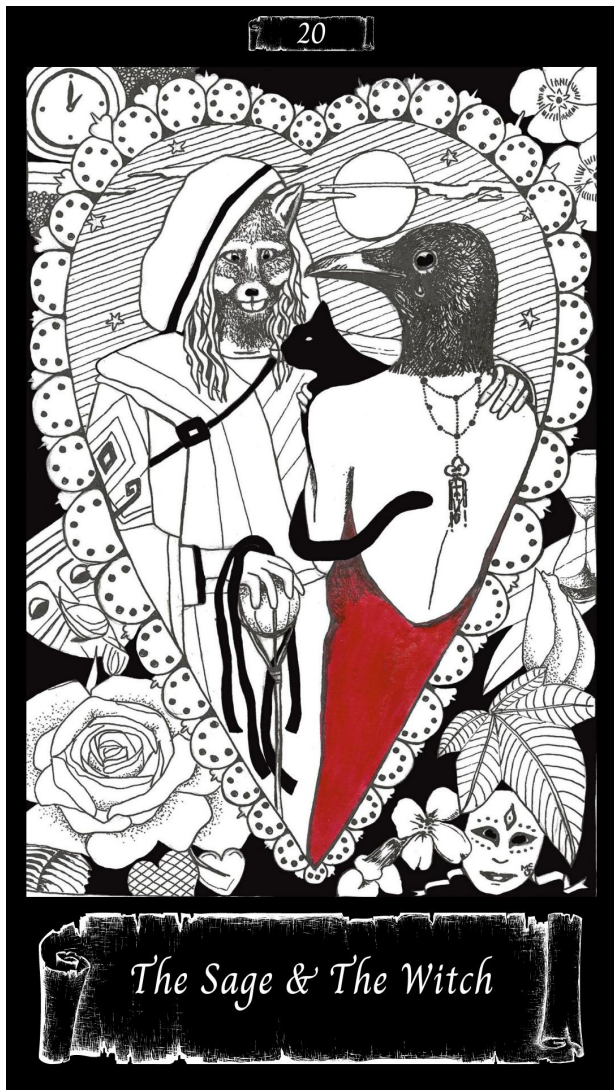

Deep within the enchanted forest lies a mystical waterfall. This is where wizards gather with their drinking horns to drink the healing waters. The water heals, cleanses, and detoxes the body. If you have been drawn to this card it's time to stop and take care of yourself. Get out your own drinking horn and start to drink from it. You have found of late; you are not always drinking regularly and are sipping on the go. You may be going for long periods of time without any fluid. This is not good and can make you feel dizzy, tired, or drained and dehydrated. A wise wizard always carries some water deep within the vessel of the drinking horn, to keep himself hydrated at all times.

Like a plant that needs to be watered, you are being encouraged to put the same level of self-love and care into you. Don't allow your energy to become too thirsty. Stay hydrated.

– Wizard Incantation –

I place my drinking horn into the water and watch as it fills up with healing waters ready to drink. Such power, I cleanse my body and my soul, my thirst complete. Hydrated my mind and body stay in control.

Card 20 - The Sage & The Witch

- Key Words -
Soulmates
Unity
Friendship

Long ago there was a time when the sage met his soulmate, black raven hair with piercing eyes, red velvet cloak, the sage met his witch. If you have been drawn to this card, now is a time to stop and take action. There is somebody around you that you have a heart centred connection with. This maybe just as good friends or it may be growing and developing into something deeper.

You may not have known each other for very long, yet it feels like you have known each other for an eternity. You may feel like you are soul mates, destined to be together and in each other's lives for the greater of good.

Stop trying to understand how or why, and just allow this beautiful connection to happen. It is something so sacred, special and rare, not many people get to experience it in its complete state, only a rare few are chosen.

You are blessed to be one of these. Take control and know this is a person that will not wish to hurt or take from you. They care too deeply about you they just want to bring in eternal love and share this world with you.

– Wizard Incantation –

From a far, I see their face, through smoke and time I can't misplace. They look familiar, yet we have just met. Their energy feels old yet familiar I cannot forget. Two hearts bound as one from times before, reconnect in this life for adventures and more.

Card 21 - The Black Dragon

- Key Words -
Conflict
Battle
Restrictions
Communication - Honour

High in the sky within the mountains the darkest of all creatures' roams. The fiery blaze cannot be mistaken, the black dragon, a frightful beast, such power and venom, he wants to defeat. If you have been drawn to this card there is a lot of conflict going on with or around you at this this time. You are not looking for any, yet you may find situations or circumstances are pulling you in. Things may be feeling a little fiery or becoming too hot to handle. It's time to put the fire out and untie the ropes that are pulling you in. Whilst you don't always like to use your voice now is the time to scream and be heard. Use your wand on the dragon to spellbind it with an incantation that comes to hand.

Know and trust you hold the power needed within you, communication is needed in order to overcome the dark forces in hand and defeat the black dragon. Time to speak up for what you believe in.

– Wizard Incantation –

Whilst fire may be blown my way, no hurt it causes no burns today. I use my wand as a shield. Protect my heart, I have freewill. Whilst words may blow back and forth, the time is now to end this dual. I send all hurts and drama away, I will soldier on to fight today.

Card 22 - The Wizards Tree

- Key Words -
Patience
Mature
Strong
Graceful

Deep within the crystal cave, something so special no one else has seen. The wizard's tree, so tall and beautiful, yet also old and tired. Its roots stretch for miles around the crystal kingdom. If you have been drawn to this card, there are many changes coming in for you. But most importantly you must wait patiently for things to grow into fruition. You may have been very eager to get moving forward with new ideas and wanting things to happen before they are fully grown or matured. Like the wizard he had to plant the seeds and watch the tree take root and slowly grow and mature over many years.

Whilst this may seem a bit long winded to you, be sure that good things come to those that wait and trust that your patience will be rewarded.

Like the wizard's beautiful tree, it grew from his patience, that has been for his eyes only to see.

Allow your own roots to start slowly growing ready for when the time comes to blossom.

– Wizard Incantation –

I throw the seeds into the earth. I look, I wait, I just see dirt. Whilst time goes on, I slowly see, a bud that blossoms there before me. I wait a day, I wait a week, two more leaves have blossomed as I speak. I get the point it's trying to make – Somethings in life are worth the wait.

Card 23 - The Wizards Athame

- Key Words -
Change
Ritual
Detach
Empower

Beneath the wizards' robes, tight around his belt, lies his trusted athame. Whilst he rarely needs to use this tool, he still has it on him always just in case. If you have been drawn to this card, there is a real need to make some changes or detach from something. You have been finding old patterns have been repeating themselves. You may have felt a change is needed but feel a bit scared or unsure how to detach from the old cycle to embrace the new. The wizard wants you to review your life and look at what you treasure and hold dear to you. He also wants you to look at what else is going on. What's really needed or important in the grand scheme of things. Or are you holding on to old energy that could be restricting or blocking the pathway forward? If you feel something's are becoming heavy, it's time to use the athame and cut the cords that are holding you back. See how easy the blade slices through and detaches the bindings that once restricted you. Changes are sometimes painful but necessary. Take comfort in the knowing the cords have now been cut. New energy can find its way in and deeper magick can now begin.

– Wizard Incantation –

A change I feel is needed. One step forward I start to bleed. The rope that restricts and burns my skin, it's time to cut and allow change in. I cut the cords from every angle. I feel set free its time to sparkle.

Card 24 - Land Of The Fairies

- Key Words -

Laughter

Fun

Joy

Mischief - Playful

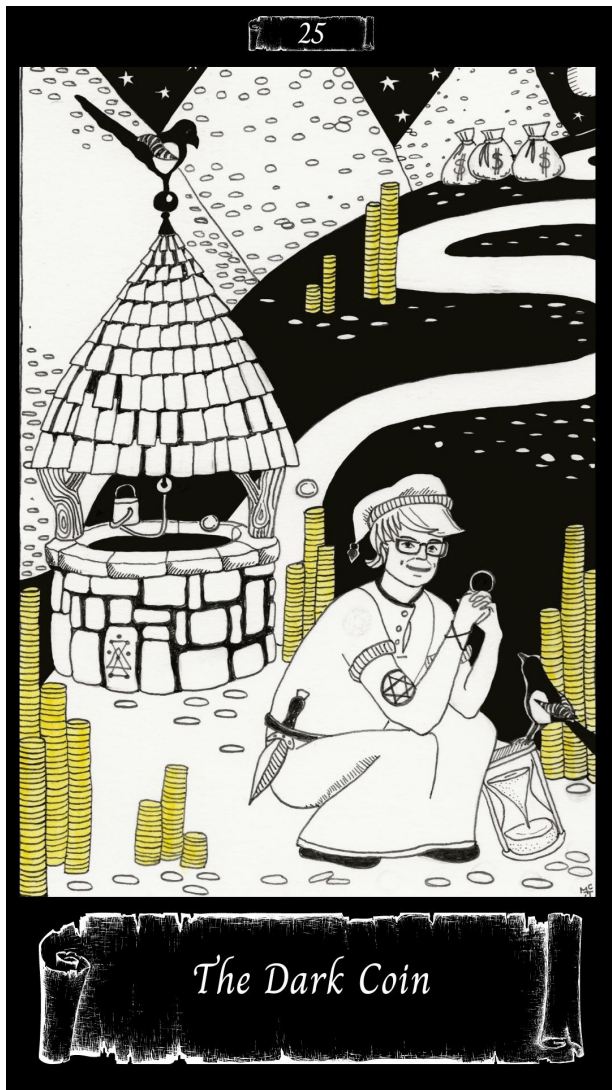

Whilst the wizard walks the woods, he hears a load of voices. They chime and chatter he can't make it out but a gentle smile crosses his face. He has reached the land of the fairies. He knows he must keep his guard up, as fairies love to laugh, joke and cause mischief. If you have been drawn to this card now is the time to stop being so serious and have a good laugh. Like the fairies, you are also known at times to have a good sense of humour, dry, quick and witty. It's time to stop and smile with the world again and have a good belly laugh, perhaps it's been a while since you allowed yourself to. Don't feel you are letting people down from the spirit world by having fun and living your life. Spirit wants you to be happy, have fun and laugh freely with them. Things may have been pretty serious in recent times, yet you are a fun-loving person. The fairies are reminding you not to let the laughter stop. Enjoy and embrace for laughter is the best form of medicine, we have to heal the heart. So, we can live and love all within the world.

– Wizard Incantation –

People think I'm serious when in fact I'm not. I'm smiling from within, it's just my face that's not. I know what makes me happy, I know what makes me smile, the world we live in can be such a funny place. The inner laughter I can now let show across my face.

Card 25 - The Dark Coin

- Key Words -
Finances
Loss
Savings
Hardship

The dark coin is something all wizards will carry with them at some point in their life. This comes into their life as a teaching or higher experience.

It may at times make you feel stuck or limited forever, but you in fact have the power to change this from dark to gold. If you have been drawn to this card the coin centres around finances. Because it's a dark coin this card suggests that you may be lacking in material abundance or prosperity in recent times. But take comfort in the knowing that this is merely a phase and something that may be coming in as a slight test in recent times. Whilst it might feel like there is no hope, or a clear way forward, you have struggled before and found your way back on top, so this current set back is no different. It is now time to use your magick within to turn the coin from dark to gold. Once you give yourself permission to receive wealth and abundance, watch the gold coins pure in.

– Wizard Incantation –

I hold this coin within my hand. So dark, so worn, so grubby. I throw it into a wishing well, my hopes, my dreams made weary. Relieved it's gone from my grasp; I carry on steady. I stop and smile for on the ground a golden coin lays merry.

Card 26 - The Golden Coin

- Key Words -

Finances

Abundance

Prosperity - Hardwork

Wealth - Success

The golden coin is something all wizards work towards achieving. This can take months or even years. The way of the wizard has been truly accepted on all levels, and whilst you use your gifts every day, you have made a deal with mother earth that they are used for the greater of good. If you have been drawn to this card the world is smiling with you. The golden coin centres around finances and the way you choose to live your life. You have finally reached a place where you have abundance in an emotional and financial way and things feel safe and comfortable. This has been an emotional battle, but despite all the dark coins you came into contact with, you have not given up on your inner magick. You continued to move forward and did the necessary work required. This card is celebrating that success for you at this time. You are a hardworking wizard and have been from a young age. It's time to stand tall and proud, and smile and see how far you have come and celebrate the successes of life.

– Wizard Incantation –

I catch a glimpse there in the distance something pure and sparkling. I hold my hand out to see a golden coin in front of me. So bright, so bold, it lights up the night. The light shines bright and heavenly. I am blessed to know that I have used this beautiful gift for all to see.

Card 27 - The Enchanted Lake

- Key Words -
Self-Love

Inner Acceptance

Mindfulness

Peace

Nostalgia - Reflection

The water's edge calls you in as you make your way to the enchanted lake. Like a big mirror, you stand on the bridge above and gaze into its mystical waters.

If you have been drawn to this card, there has been a lot of over studying with you in recent times and overlooking or reviewing of the past. You have never really felt fully comfortable with what you see before you. You look into the water and see your face change being taken back to times of old. Wizards must learn to be at peace with the face they see reflecting back at them and love the person that you have become. The story may not have always been perfect, but it has shaped you into the person you are today. Whilst you may find it difficult to hold love for yourself do not sacrifice the essence of you. You know what you have had to go through to stand tall in today's world, and no one can take this away from you. It's time to accept who you are. Be happy with the scars you may wear, or the ageing of your skin, for your inner beauty and light continues to shine from within.

– Wizard Incantation –

I look into the deep waters and see a face before me. It looks so worn and battered; I turn my eyes away. I look back and notice, the eyes sparkling before me, whilst faces may weather, the light burns bright, the inner beauty is still igniting.

Card 28 - The Wizards Castle

- Key Words -
Home
Security
Sacred Space
Change - Moving

The wizard walks back to his cave a place that is just for him. Whilst he feels contented here, he stops and looks out over through the mountains into the distance and notices a castle.

If you have been drawn to this card it's time to access your home or inner kingdom. Whilst your home may look visually lovely, you are feeling disconnected from it and know it's time for a change. You are starting to feel detached from the place you are currently calling home. You may even be resenting or not wanting to go home after a long day. Regularly cleansing your home with incense or white sage, can take away any negative feelings in the short term. However, if you have been doing this and are still feeling unsettled, then a new home awaits you. Like the castle in the distance there is a need to find somewhere new that you can move to and call home. This maybe somewhere nearby or perhaps its time to look further afield. Either way act now and put the steps in place to make this happen. A new adventure is ready to be had, it's time to pack up your wizardry possessions and venture forward.

– Wizard Incantation –

As I venture home, I stop and look out ahead of me. Rolling mist and smoke surround a beautiful castle out at sea. Its mystical windows lit up with candlelight, somewhere new is calling me. A new home I will attract, sacred space I will have back.

The Enchanted Tear

Card 29 - The Enchanted Teardrop

- Key Words -
Tears
Depression
Grief
Soul Seeking

There have been many tears of recent times, some may be physical others may be internal. As all wizards know they don't always like to show there tears freely, they prefer to keep them hidden and locked away from the world to see. If you have been drawn to this card there have been some tears that need release. It's really important to honour these tears and not feel guilty or bad for feeling the way that you do.

This is merely part of a healing process all wizards must go through at some stage of there life. Whilst the feelings at the time feel like they will go on forever, take comfort in the knowing that they will stop, and the feelings will pass. Allow yourself time to realise any tears that have been bottled up away from the world to see. Notice how lighter you feel from offloading these energies. Allow the tears to be caught by mother earth who will transmute the energy, into something more wholesome and positive. She will send any old energies into the earth to be cleared, cleansed and reset.

– Wizard Incantation –

A lonely tear runs down my face. I feel it trickle and leave its trace. More tears come and follow on, the time is needed the hurts are gone. Once eyes felt tired and slightly sore, feel uplifted and love enters and conquers all.

The Magick Gathering

Card 30 - The Magick Gathering

- Key Words -
Friendship
Mischief
Memories
Adventures

Whilst wizards tend to walk alone on occasion, they have a mystical gathering usually in the changes of the seasons. This is a most magical time for wizards as they are able to reconnect to others they haven't seen for a while. If you have been drawn to this card it's time to reconnect with friends or maybe family, you haven't seen for a while. What is great about these types of connection, is it doesn't matter how long-time passes, you just pick up from where you left off. These are some of the most important people within your life, and that love always radiates even if they're not always physical present.

Friendships that last forever no matter how many days, weeks, months or years go by. Like the wizard there is a special gathering coming up for you at this time. Beautiful souls are reconnecting and putting the worlds to right. Treasure this time however little or often it happens. As true friendship is a rare gift of its own.

– Wizard Incantation –

I walk into the crowd I start to smile and laugh. Voices from the past call my name, as if no time has passed. We laugh and talk and reminisce about all the good and bad. Forever friends, there always there, for such a joy it is they care.

Card 31 - The Sun, The Moon & Stars

- Key Words -
Forgiveness - Letting Go
Wishes
Hopes
Dreams - Healing

The wizard is a very gentle soul who works with the sun for renewed energy, the moon for strength, and the stars for hope. The wizard has been reflecting over past hurts that he is struggling to let go of or put to bed. If you have been drawn to this card like the wizard you're holding onto some past hurts. You haven't been able to understand why you were treated or spoken to the way you were. You can't quite get your head around what's happened and are struggling to make sense of it all. Whilst this may seem a tough time, there is a need for forgiveness here. Not for the person who has upset you, but for the actions they have taken. Forgiveness is needed from you so you can free yourself of this unneeded baggage. Why should you be made to feel this way? Whatever has happened it cannot be changed, however how we choose to respond, and act can be changed. Therefore, Forgiveness is so important as it will heal yourself and the person who caused the hurt. It might be that you have to walk away or disconnect them from your life. Either way is perfectly fine and what needs to be actioned. Use the suns energy to heal you of this pain. Use the moon to cleanse your soul and send a wish to the stars for hope and forgiveness.

– Wizard Incantation –

I watch the sun go down, so big, red and clear the day is nearly done the mystic moon appears.
I share all my worries, hurts and upsets, she watches and she smile's while I let go of all regrets. I see a shooting star dazzle through the sky, new hopes, new dreams, new wishes all catch my eye. The sun reawakens from its earthly sleep.

A new day has been granted a new adventure yet to complete.

Thank you...

Mitch & Melanie would like to take this opportunity to thank you for purchasing and supporting a small independent business and being part of the journey of

The Wizard Within Oracle deck.

You may have seen Mitch's cheeky dog Oscar featured in some of the cards...

Oscar is Mitch's witches familiar and when there is magick to be created Oscar is never far away.

Copyrighted - All Rights Reserved

Artwork - ©Meltangleart2022

Publishing - ©MitchGarlington2022